

02-05/Sept.06 | chania | crete

9th meeting of heads of schools of architecture in Europe2006

Mapping the Reforms in // Architectural Education in Europe

// Architectural Education // profile

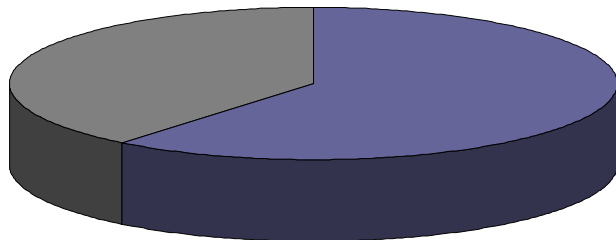

Schools recognized by State //	308
students enrolled in European//	148.317
Academic staff employed at the schools of Architecture//	15.167

Mapping the Reforms in Europe 2006

EUROPE's profile	School's BOLOGNA process	School's profile
School's autonomy	Level of education	Degree structure

Sufficient autonomy of Schools in a Country to reform their curricula autonomously // Architectural Education // profile

In 17 Countries schools reform their degree autonomously

61%

In 11 Countries schools reform their degree under a new law

39%

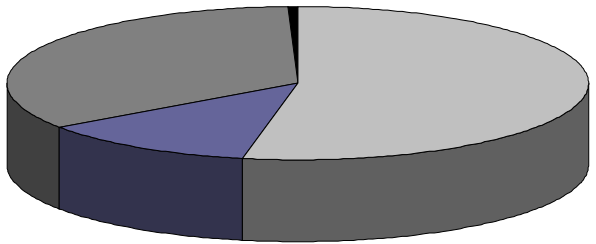

Mapping the Reforms in Europe 2006

EUROPE's profile	School's BOLOGNA process	School's profile
School's autonomy	Level of education	Degree structure

reconsideration of curricula with the Bologna process, particularly with the regard to adapting programs to the new degrees' structure

// Architectural Education // bologna process

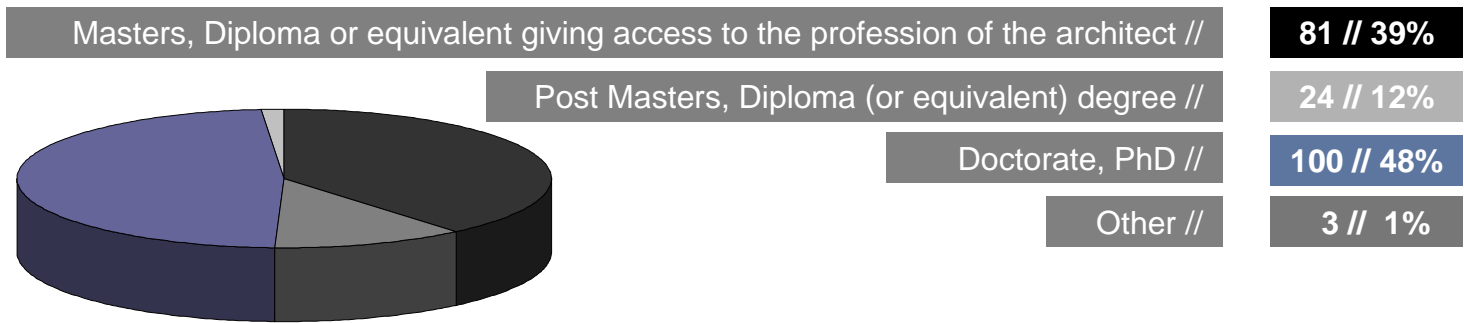

YES all Schools in the Country //	109 // 54%
YES some Schools in the Country //	25 // 12%
NO difficult to say at this stage when //	70 // 34%
NOT yet, will do so in the near future //	1 // 0%

Mapping the Reforms in Europe 2006

EUROPE's profile	School's BOLOGNA process	School's profile
School's autonomy	Level of education	Degree structure

The highest level to which Schools of Architecture in Europe educate students // Architectural Education // level of education

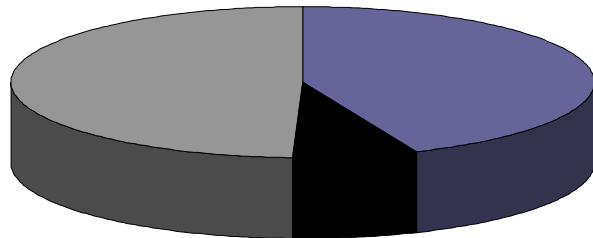

Mapping the Reforms in Europe 2006

EUROPE's profile	School's BOLOGNA process	School's profile
School's autonomy	Level of education	Degree structure

the profile of Schools of Architecture in Europe // Architectural Education // schools' profile

Primarily teaching-oriented // 76 // 44%

Primarily research-based // 12 // 7%

Both teaching-oriented and research-based // 86 // 49%

Mapping the Reforms in Europe 2006

EUROPE's profile	School's BOLOGNA process	School's profile
School's autonomy	Level of education	Degree structure

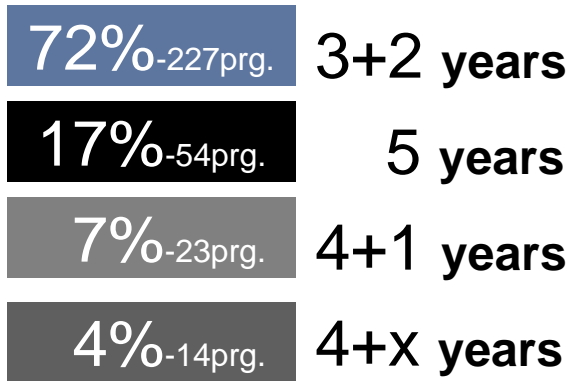

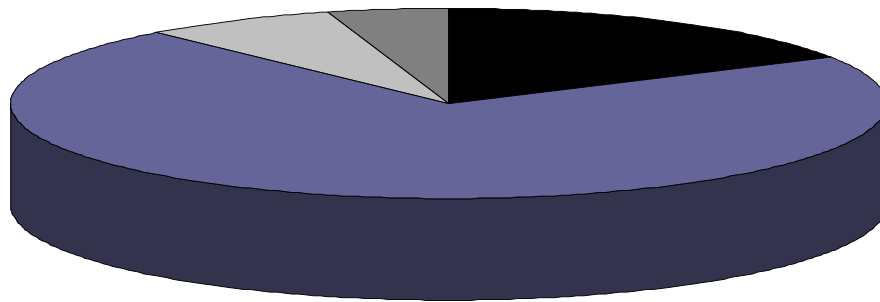

// Architectural Education // degree structure in Europe

EUROPE's profile	School's BOLOGNA process	School's profile
School's autonomy	Level of education	Degree structure

// Architectural Education // degree structure in Europe

Mapping the Reforms in Europe 2006

EUROPE's profile	School's BOLOGNA process	School's profile
School's autonomy	Level of education	Degree structure

5 years // Architectural Education // degree structure

64%
five continuous years of studies without any intermediate degree. One final degree on Architecture

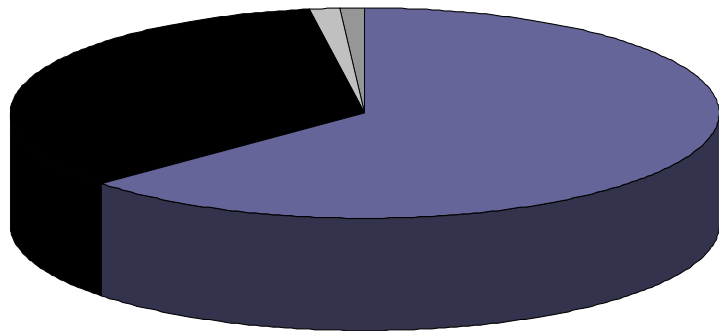

34%
 five continuous years of studies without any intermediate degree. Optional emphasis on specific subject areas in the last years of studies. One final degree on Architecture five continuous years of studies without any intermediate degree. Optional specialization studies in the last years. Reference of specialization on the title of the final degree (ex. Architecture Restoration)

1%

1%
 five continuous years of studies with an intermediate degree after 3 years delivered only to students who want to move to another school

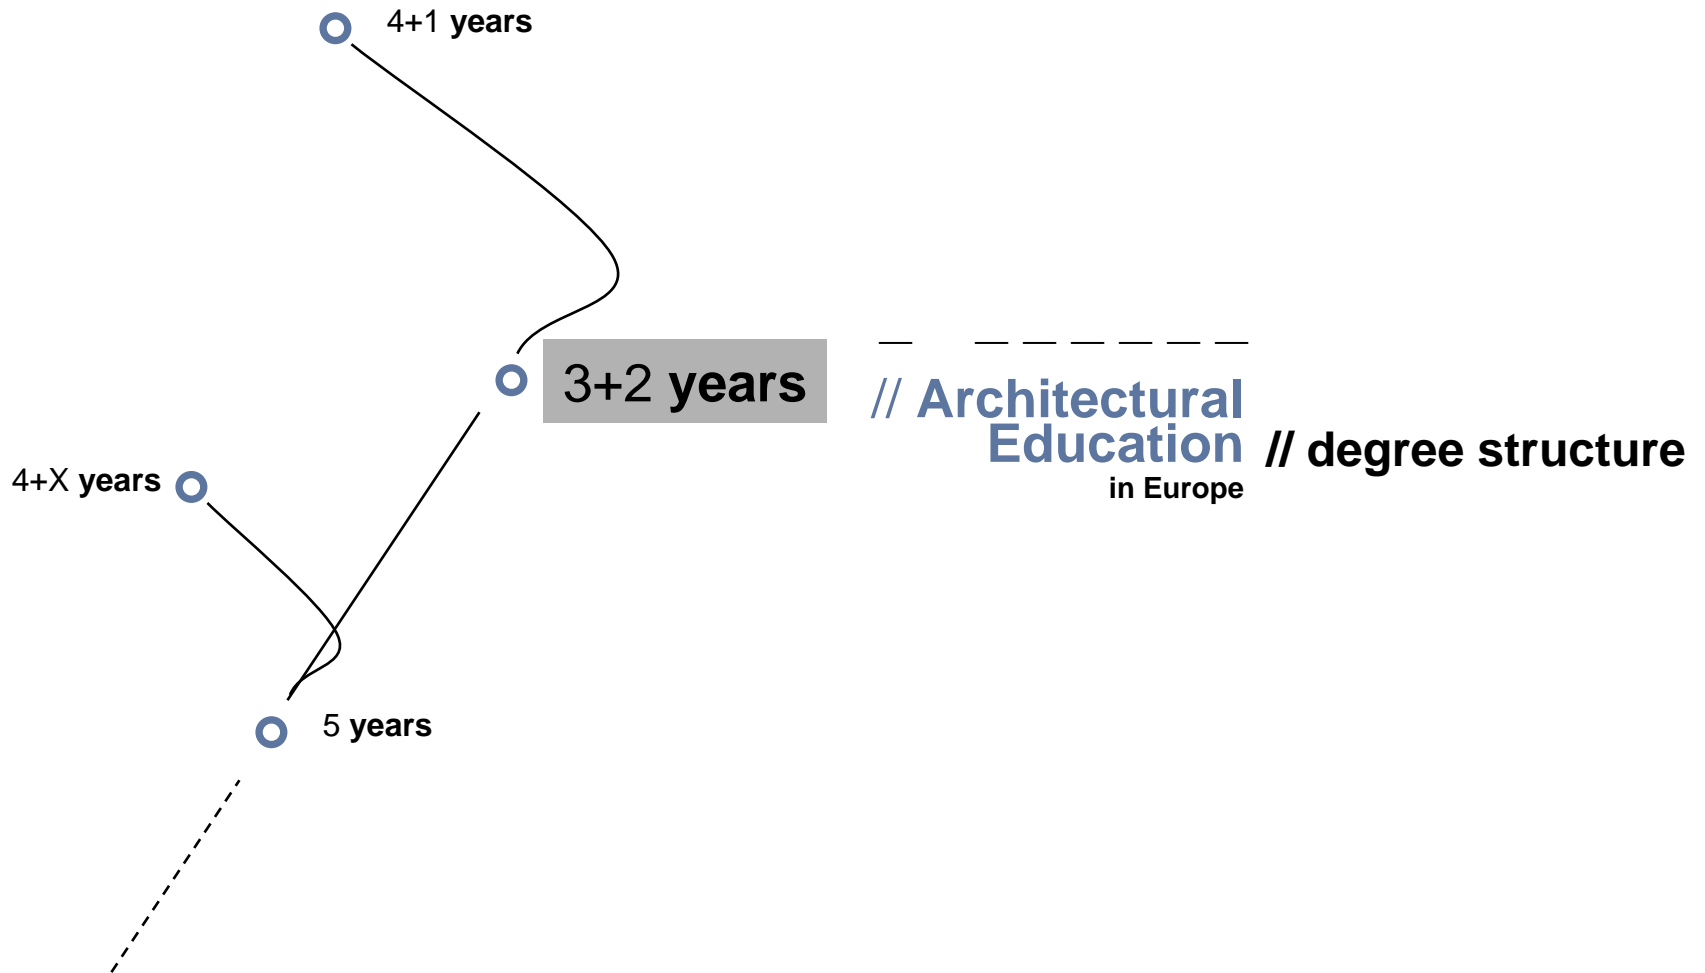

Mapping the Reforms in Europe 2006

EUROPE's profile	School's BOLOGNA process	School's profile
School's autonomy	Level of education	Degree structure

Mapping the Reforms in Europe 2006

EUROPE's profile	School's BOLOGNA process	School's profile
School's autonomy	Level of education	Degree structure

EUROPE's profile	School's BOLOGNA process	School's profile
School's autonomy	Level of education	Degree structure

3+2 years // Architectural Education // degree structure in Europe

Three years of basic general studies in Architecture leading to a bachelor or equivalent degree + two years advanced general architectural studies leading to one final degree on Architecture (masters or equivalent).

- conceived and organised as two parts of one five-years program
- organised as two independent programs

Three years of basic general studies in Architecture leading to a bachelor or equivalent degree + two years advanced architectural studies with optional emphasis on specific subject areas leading to one final degree on Architecture (masters or equivalent).

- conceived and organised as two parts of one five-years program
- organised as two independent programs

Three years of basic general studies in Architecture leading to a bachelor or equivalent degree + two years specialized architectural studies leading to a number of different specialized degrees (masters or equivalent). Architecture appears as one of the specializations. The two cycles are organised as two independent programs.

Three years of basic specialized studies leading to a bachelor or equivalent degree + two years specialized studies leading to a specialized degree (masters or equivalent).

Three years of basic general studies in arts and design leading to a bachelor or equivalent degree + two years advanced general architectural studies leading to one final degree on Architecture (masters or equivalent).

Mapping the Reforms in Europe 2006

EUROPE's profile

School's BOLOGNA process

School's profile

School's autonomy

Level of education

Degree structure

3+2 years // Architectural Education // degree structure in Europe

Three years of basic general studies in Architecture leading to a bachelor or equivalent degree + two years advanced general architectural studies leading to one final degree on Architecture (masters or equivalent).

65%

Three years of basic general studies in Architecture leading to a bachelor or equivalent degree + two years advanced architectural studies with optional emphasis on specific subject areas leading to one final degree on Architecture (masters or equivalent).

25%

Three years of basic general studies in Architecture leading to a bachelor or equivalent degree + two years specialized architectural studies leading to a number of different specialized degrees (masters or equivalent). Architecture appears as one of the specializations. The two cycles are organised as two independent programs.

5%

Three years of basic specialized studies leading to a bachelor or equivalent degree + two years specialized studies leading to a specialized degree (masters or equivalent).

5%

Three years of basic general studies in arts and design leading to a bachelor or equivalent degree + two years advanced general architectural studies leading to one final degree on Architecture (masters or equivalent).

0%

Mapping the Reforms in Europe 2006

EUROPE's profile

School's BOLOGNA process

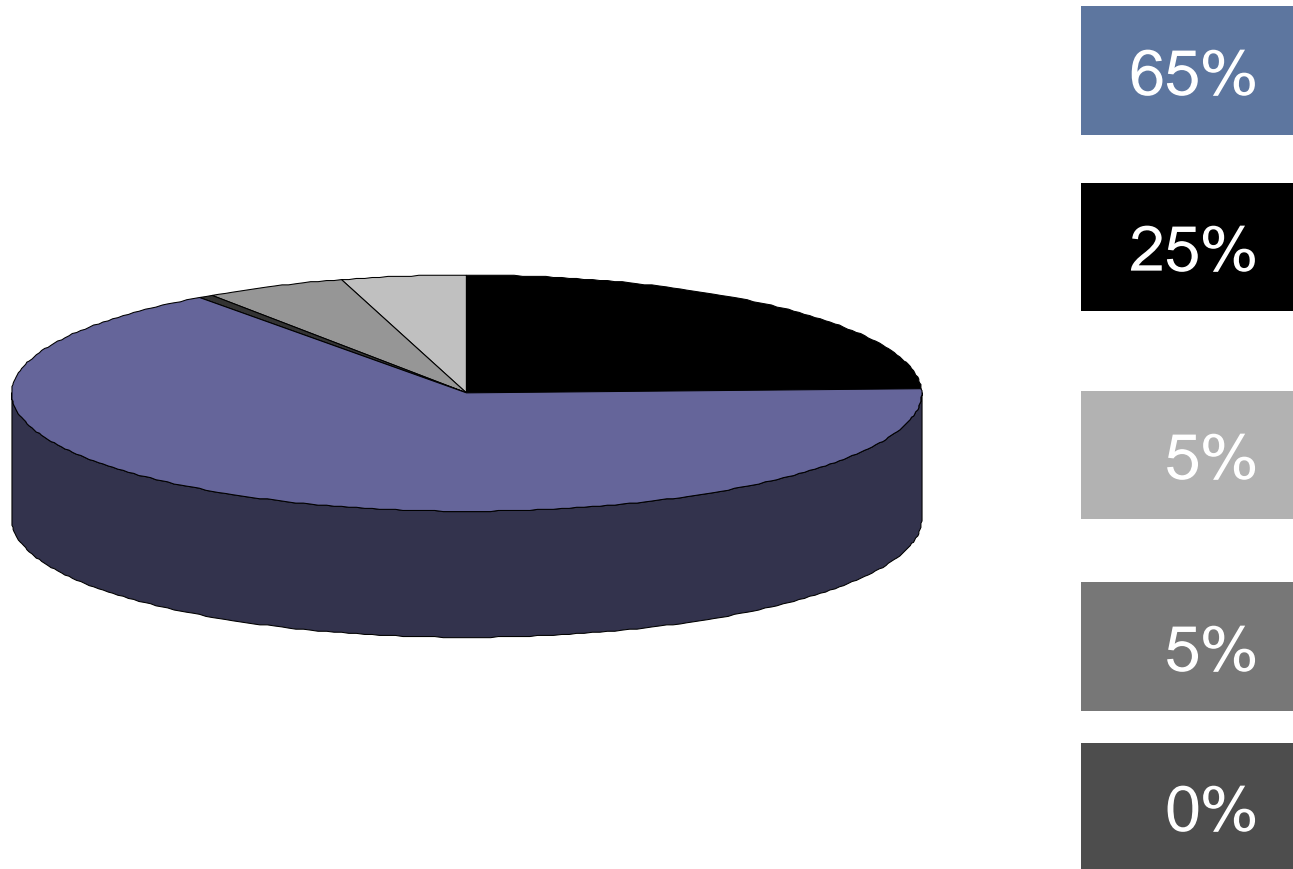

School's profile

School's autonomy

Level of education

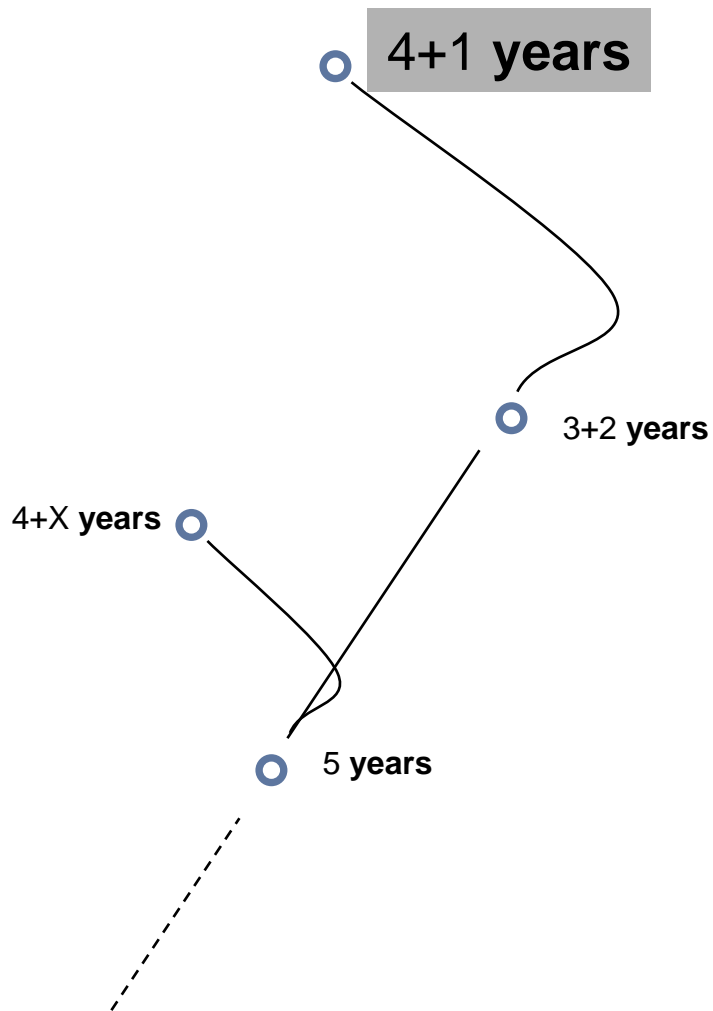

Degree structure

3+2 years // Architectural Education // degree structure in Europe

Mapping the Reforms in Europe 2006

EUROPE's profile	School's BOLOGNA process	School's profile
School's autonomy	Level of education	Degree structure

// Architectural Education // degree structure in Europe

EUROPE's profile	School's BOLOGNA process	School's profile
School's autonomy	Level of education	Degree structure

4+1 years // Architectural Education // degree structure in Europe

Four years of general studies in Architecture leading to a bachelor or equivalent degree + one year of advanced general studies in Architecture leading to one final degree on Architecture (masters or equivalent).

Mapping the Reforms in Europe 2006

EUROPE's profile

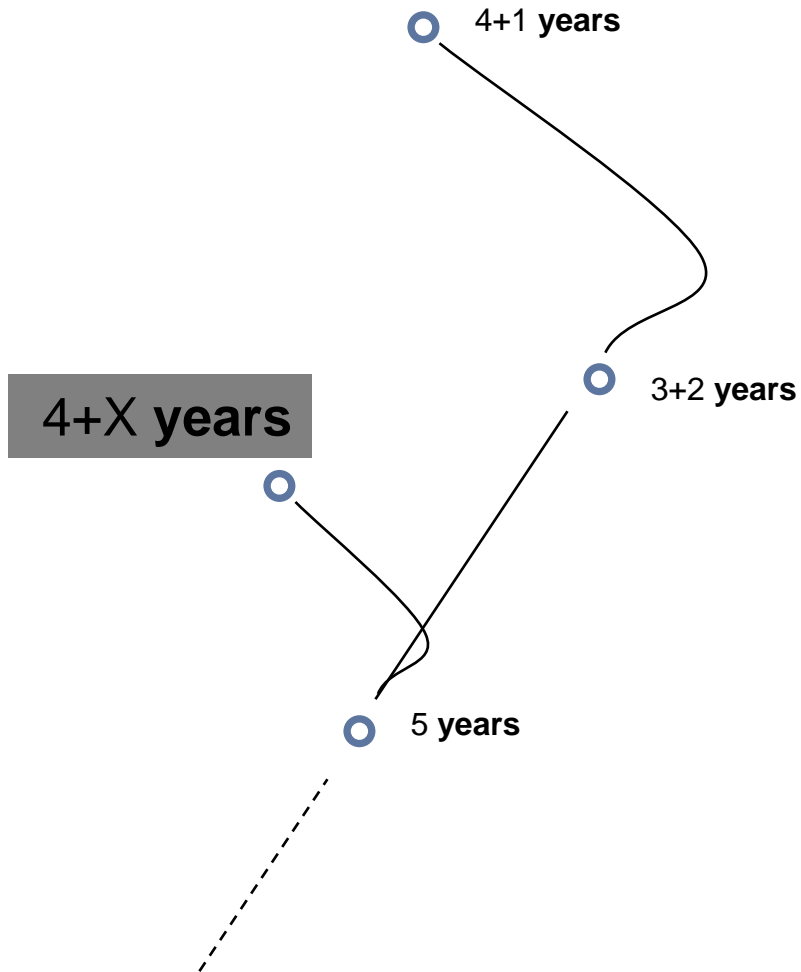

School's BOLOGNA process

School's profile

School's autonomy

Level of education

Degree structure

// Architectural Education // degree structure in Europe

EUROPE's profile	School's BOLOGNA process	School's profile
School's autonomy	Level of education	Degree structure

4+X years // Architectural Education // degree structure in Europe

Four years of general studies in Architecture leading to a bachelor or equivalent degree + ...

... access to profession

Estonia

... two years

Lithuania – Master | Slovakia Ing. Arch or Mgr.Art

... four years

Netherlands - Master

Mapping the Reforms in Europe 2006

EUROPE's profile

School's BOLOGNA process

School's profile

School's autonomy

Level of education

Degree structure

// Architectural Education // Europe

Mapping the Reforms in Europe 2006

EUROPE's profile	School's BOLOGNA process	School's profile
School's autonomy	Level of education	Degree structure